

Amalga Job Description

Position: MACHINIST – PRODUCTION

Duties:

Set up, adjust, and operate machine tools to perform progressive machine operations on a variety of standardized work having close tolerances and finish requirements. Machine types to include standard turning and planing machines, boring and drilling machines, grinders, etc. Speeds and feeds, operational sequences and tooling usually prescribed but Machinist may select or vary same to compensate for materials, conditions or variations on standard procedures. Grind tools. May set up machines for operation by others. Work from drawings, specifications and job layouts. Use a variety of precision measuring instruments. Requires a knowledge of shop practices and machining fundamentals as acquired through vocational training and experience. Work is subject to process and final inspection.

Minimum Education or Certificate Requirement: High School diploma or G.E.D.

Minimum Time in Equivalent Position: Two months preferred.

Required Skills: Reading, writing, basic math, ability to carry up to 50 pounds, ability to stand at machine for full shift.